Debbie's Thoughts:

We appreciate you taking a chance on the weather and coming to pull with us. It rained at the track a little Friday night. Drizzled Saturday morning. Ricky went and checked the track twice, before bringing the sled. Luckily the track was still dry. The weather forecast was 50% rain, after 1:00. He decided to risk it. He definitely made the right decision. It turned out to be a beautiful day.

Never would have guessed the track would be so dusty. We apologize for the track condition. Thanks for bearing with us. We did the best we could with what we had to work with. We will do our best to keep it from happening again.

As always we appreciate all the hard work from everyone. It means a lot to us, especially when you brave the sun and heat. I know it makes for a long day.

Thanks to Brad Allen & all the employees of Ace Speedway for letting us pull there again. We are looking forward to pulling there most of this season. We appreciate you all paying the $5 admission to them. I think we get our moneys worth. They have nice facilities and they are close to the track.

Sorry I didn't post anything on the website or Facebook. We were busy getting loaded up. I just figured you knew, no news was good news. I always post rainouts as soon as we make the decision. Ricky checks the tracks by Friday evening, if it is questionable. I will start letting you know track conditions then. Please stay in the habit of checking before you load up and again before leaving home. I post it before I start texting & calling everyone. If you haven't been receiving those, please let me know. I will add you to the list. I don't want any of you to waste your time or gas/fuel.

Don't think I have ever thought to mention our hats & T shirts. Thank you for all of them you've bought. We are proud that you want to advertise and be associated with us. If I am ever out of your size or style, let me know. I can probably get it before the next pull.

Hope to see everyone back at Ace Speedway on July 26th. Have a safe Fourth of July holiday!